

Saathvik Bogam

1 Overview

As a committed BS-MS student at the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research, Bhopal, I have a deep-seated interest in Physics and Mathematics. My thorough academic curriculum has given me a solid theoretical base, which I enhance with a strong technical skill set. I am skilled in C programming and scientific computing utilizing advanced Python libraries such as NumPy, SciPy, SymPy, and Matplotlib. In addition to my programming skills, I possess extensive experience in scientific documentation with LaTeX, and I am enthusiastic about leveraging my analytical problem-solving abilities to tackle intricate research challenges.
